

USW Guide to Benefits During COVID-19 NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

● LAID OFF DUE TO WORKPLACE CLOSURE?

Apply for Employment Insurance (EI) regular benefits.

- Payment is 55% of average insurable weekly earnings
- Max of $573 per week less applicable taxes
- Paid for 14-45 weeks based on unemployment rate in your region
- To be eligible, you will need to have worked the following number of hours in the last 52 weeks:
  - St. John's: 630
  - Newfoundland/Labrador: 420

- If you are unsure which EI region you are in, you can input your postal code here and find out: https://srv129.services.gc.ca/eiregions/eng/postalcode\_search.aspx
- You will need a Record of Employment (ROE) saying you have been laid off from your employer.
- There is a one week waiting period after you are approved; you will not be paid for that week
- You do not qualify if you are unemployed because you are directly participating in a strike.
- You must apply online. You can do so here.

● UNABLE TO WORK DUE TO SELF-QUARANTINE OR SICK DUE TO COVID-19?

Apply for EI sickness benefits.

- Payment is 55% of average insurable weekly earnings
- Paid for 15 weeks.
- You need to have worked 600 hours in the last 52 weeks.

- Once you have applied here you need to call 1-833-381-2725 to notify that you would like to have the one-week waiting period waived. This line is only for those who are sick or quarantined and affected by COVID-19.

- Apply online here: canada.ca/en/services/benefits/ei/ei-sickness/apply

● LAID OFF BUT INELIGIBLE FOR EI?

● UNABLE TO WORK DUE TO SCHOOL CLOSURE?

● SELF-QUARANTINED AND INELIGIBLE FOR EI?

● EMPLOYED BUT NOT CURRENTLY PAID BECAUSE THERE IS INSUFFICIENT WORK AND EMPLOYER HAS ASKED YOU NOT TO COME TO WORK?

Apply for the Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB).

- The government will provide a taxable benefit of $2,000 for up to 4 months backdated to March 15th.
- The CERB will be accessible through a secure web portal on April 6th.
- You will also be able to apply via:

- Your CRA My Account secure portal
- Your My Service Canada Account; or
- an automated telephone line via toll-free number
- You should start receiving your benefits 10 days after you submit your application form. The earliest you can receive benefits through direct deposit is April 16th.

● IS THE PROVINCE DOING ANYTHING?

- Student loan repayments suspended until September 30, 2020.
- Provincial government will provide compensation to private sector employers to ensure continuation of pay for employees who are required to self-isolate for 14 days as a result of travelling outside of the country.
- Protecting employees from losing their job if they must take time away from work as a result of COVID-19.

- Ensure tenants of rental properties cannot be evicted if they have lost income resulting from COVID-19.
- Families do not have to pay for child care fees, and early childhood educators will be paid while centres are closed.

<stru-sdr, cope-sepb 343>