

USW Guide to Benefits During COVID-19 NEW BRUNSWICK

● LAID OFF DUE TO WORKPLACE CLOSURE?

Apply for Employment Insurance (EI) regular benefits.

- Payment is 55% of average insurable weekly earnings
  - Max of $573 per week less applicable taxes
  - Paid for 14-45 weeks based on unemployment rate in your region
  - To be eligible, you will need to have worked the following number of hours in the last 52 weeks:
    - Fredericton-Moncton-Saint John: 665
    - Madawaska-Charlotte: 630
    - Restigouche-Albert: 490
- If you are unsure which EI region you are in, you can input your postal code here and find out: https://srv129.services.gc.ca/eiregions/eng/postalcode\_search.aspx
  - You will need a Record of Employment (ROE) saying you have been laid off from your employer.
  - There is a one-week waiting period after you are approved; you will not be paid for that week
  - You do not qualify if you are unemployed because you are directly participating in a strike.
  - You must apply online. You can do so here.

● UNABLE TO WORK DUE TO SELF-QUARANTINE OR SICK DUE TO COVID-19?

Apply for EI sickness benefits.

- Payment is 55% of average insurable weekly earnings
  - Paid for 15 weeks.
  - You need to have worked 600 hours in the last 52 weeks.
  - Once you have applied here you need to call 1-833-381-2725 to notify that you would like to have the one-week waiting period waived. This line is only for those who are sick or quarantined and affected by COVID-19.
- A yet to be established dedicated toll-free number will be set up for these applications.
  - Apply online here: canada.ca/en/services/benefits/ei/ei-sickness/apply

● LAID OFF BUT INELIGIBLE FOR EI?

● UNABLE TO WORK DUE TO SCHOOL CLOSURE?

● SELF-QUARANTINED AND INELIGIBLE FOR EI?

● EMPLOYED BUT NOT CURRENTLY PAID BECAUSE THERE IS INSUFFICIENT WORK AND EMPLOYER HAS ASKED YOU NOT TO COME TO WORK?

Apply for the Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB).

- The government will provide a taxable benefit of $2,000 for up to 4 months backdated to March 15th.
- The CERB will be accessible through a secure web portal on April 6th.
- You will also be able to apply via:
  - Your CRA My Account secure portal
  - Your My Service Canada Account; or
  - an automated telephone line via toll-free number
- You should start receiving your benefits 10 days after you submit your application form. The earliest you can receive benefits through direct deposit is April 16th.

● IS THE PROVINCE DOING ANYTHING?

- A one-time income benefit will be provided to self-employed workers who have lost their job due to the State of Emergency. This one-time $900 benefit is administered through the Red Cross.
- Child-care fees for anyone who has lost income due to COVID-19 outbreak will be covered.
- Patients with drug coverage under NB's public drug plans are only responsible for the initial co-payment on a prescription fill or refill.
