On April 4th

You Decide

It's time to put everyday Saskatchewan families first

Not a foreign consultant? Then you probably didn't get ahead under the Sask Party government.

Resource prices delivered a decade of windfalls, but are working families better off? No.

Their friends got a great deal, but Brad Wall and the Sask Party squandered the good times. They wasted millions on bloated senior management, high-paid consultants, pet projects and political perks for friends and insiders.

Hard-working families deserve to get ahead.

- ✓ It's time to put your priorities and your family first.
- ✓ It's time to put a stop cuts to healthcare for our seniors.
- ✓ It's time for more investment in our kids' education.
- ✓ It's time for investment in good jobs, here in Saskatchewan.
- ✓ It's time to vote for Cam Broten and the Sastkatchewan NDP.

Cam and his team of New Democrats are committed to a stronger, fairer, kinder Saskatchewan: one that doesn't leave people behind. On April 4, vote for your priorities; vote for your family; vote for Cam Broten and the Saskatchewan NDP.
